People of Kama, you have to rebel!

I accepted this proposal from your continental guide, Taï EHOUAN, to speak on the Internet since my initial project was to come to Africa, in a hall or a stadium filled with at least ten thousand (10,000) people. It is a bit difficult to organize, and most of all I do not travel any more. So Taï offered me this virtual conference. Thanks to the wonders of the Internet, there is no need to travel, no need to get tired. It's amazing! We're still together. Soon, thanks to technology, we will be able to do it in 3D with holography. For now, it's just the picture but what's important is not so much the picture. It's rather what I have to say.

I wanted to do this conference for Africa, which is the continent that is dearest to my heart and the heart of the ELOHIM. Why? Because it goes back very far away in time. You know that we will celebrate the first Sunday of April, the creation of life by the ELOHIM. And as you know, as I said before, Adam and Eva were Black. This has never been said of course in the barbarous countries, that is to say, the white countries. So for the ELOHIM and for me it is very important to address the people who descend from these first Humans created by ELOHIM, you; those people who have been so badly treated and despised, and who still are today.

My purpose is not so much to talk about the history and talk about the past. For my interest is the future of Africa. Talking about the past, whining about the past does not help much. What is needed is to make Africa become what it should be, what it should never have ceased to be, that is to say, the richest continent, the most developed, the most beautiful on the planet. Because it's made for that. You have in Africa everything you need to be the richest continent in the world, to be the most developed continent in the world. But the barbarity of Europeans, a minority of European states, we must clearly understand...

Let us however do a little bit of history. You know, there is a famous French writer who wrote "The Yellow Peril". That is to say the Chinese, when China will rise, another writer who wrote that, it is terrible, they will invade the planet because they are a billion and a half now they will be more, it is a danger: the Yellow Peril. There was "the black slaves". Now, it's the "Yellow Peril". The Whites, they are always right. And so when one talks about that, you know that I live in Asia and when I talk about this story in Asia, people tell me, you know, the Yellow Peril, it makes us laugh. Because we have never colonized the planet.

On the other hand, we know very well what they call, what a great Japanese writer calls "the White Catastrophe". The White Catastrophe is the perfect word. Five tiny countries: England (tiny, if you compare the size of England with Africa, not even all of Africa, with the biggest African state, it's a chip); Belgium (It is not a chip, it is a Nano chip, it is the parasite of a chip); France (tiny), Spain, Portugal and a little bit Holland that can be added. So it is an extreme minority both in territory and in population when colonization began.

Raël is a blaas Prophet is his head.

So here are these countries, when Africa had very advanced civilizations, when Asia had very advanced civilizations; these small countries, thanks to an intellectual and scientific plunder because the Whites did not invent the gun powder. They used it to colonize the entire world but they did not invent it. They were still living in caves when all these advanced countries had a civilization with writing and paper. It is the Chinese. There is always talk about the invention of printing, Gutenberg, etc. It was the Chinese who invented everything, almost everything.

They used gun powder, the Chinese, with their great wisdom, to make fireworks, for beauty, for art. And Whites went and took that technology, which they have never been able to invent, just like the paper and the spaghetti by the way. Since it is Marco Polo who brought the pasta back to Europe and this yielded the Italian spaghetti, it is Chinese. Nearly all that is advanced in the world is Chinese.

And so the Whites arrived, they took the gun powder and instead of making fireworks they made cannons and rifles. And with that they went and invaded, created genocides, enslaved and massacred the whole planet. Except for two or three countries, the whole planet was conquered by these five (5) or six (6) dwarves, I mean dwarves of the planet, only because of a technological superiority that they did not even invent. That's the White Catastrophe. So, talking about the Yellow Peril obviously makes Asians laugh because they know what happened. And these poor White barbarians, and they are really barbarians because barbarism is that. They call others barbarians. They have the mouth-full of bringing civilization, bringing democracy. This is completely false. They are barbarians.

What is a barbarian?

They are people who arrive, who do not respect the civilizations where they arrive, who destroy the cultures and religions of the countries where they arrive, who enslave or submit in a form of slavery a little bit different (but it is the same, which is called colonization), the local peoples. It is barbarism. This is what the Romans had invented, the word, the barbarians. People who had no civilization, the populations of Eastern Europe who were barbaric nomads. And the Romans were afraid that they would come but still came to plunder the Roman civilization which was somehow quite advanced.

Well! The barbarians of the earth, the barbarians of the planet, it is not local, it is the whole planet. It has been the Whites. And they have, you know the results, all of North and South America, Africa obviously let's not talk about it, the Middle East, the Far East.

And they were so persuaded of their superiority, the poor barbarian Whites, that when they arrived in China, this remains one of the worse cultural crimes in the history of mankind.

There are the crimes of blood, that we know it is millions and millions of dead. But there are cultural crimes. For example, it is one of the finest examples and we can find others, for example in Africa, there have been others. There have been everywhere.

They arrived in China which they of course conquered with the gun powder that the Chinese used to make fireworks. They made cannons and rifles and arrived in China. And there, the French army, among others, occupies Peking and of course takes over the Summer Palace. The Summer Palace transforms Versailles, the most beautiful palace, the most beautiful French palace, the Château de Versailles of Louis XIV, the Sun King, into a doghouse, a small hut. The Chinese Summer Palace was an absolute marvel, not only by the architecture but by the extraordinary works of art, literature, poems, all that it contained.

And the French general arriving, occupying everything, sending the soldiers everywhere, visited with his generals this Summer Palace. And he is dismayed because he realizes that Versailles is a small social housing. He realizes that the French culture, of which he has his throat full, is a nonentity next to the art, the pottery, the sculptures, the paintings, and all the extraordinary Chinese culture. And he says: it is unacceptable that a culture, a civilization, be so much superior to ours. What did he do? He ordered to burn down the Summer Palace.

It remains one of the biggest cultural crimes in history that even the great Victor Hugo said it is the greatest shame of France. The Summer Palace burned for several months for it was so immense until all the books, all that was beautiful and artistic [disappeared] except a few pieces plundered by these generals of course who brought them back to the French museums where they still are and which should be rightfully returned. They did the same everywhere; they did not do that only there. The Spaniards did the same thing in South America where they destroyed works of art in gold that the Incas had, and turned them into gold plates to enrich Spain. It's everywhere, it's the barbarians. The absolute barbarity.

And that's the past. This past which continues. Because what is extraordinary is that these Whites who had nothing, who were mentally retarded, who had not invented the gun powder, who had not invented printing or paper, not even invented the pasta, they arrive in America and the Indians do not accept to be slaves. What do they do? They go to Africa, to your place. They take slaves. They take all the youngest, the most handsome, the strongest and the most beautiful. They take all these people to America. That is, it is really, one cannot imagine more barbaric than that.

So you're going to ask me how is that the ELOHIM send a White prophet? That's a question I know some people say. Why is that it's again a White man? After all that we have suffered? All the crimes? All the destructions we have suffered because of the Whites? Why do the ELOHIM send again a white man?

Then I'll surprise you. I'm not White. It's not the skin that counts. I am Black in my head. I'm Yellow in my head. I am all colors. I have no color. But, I am first Black because I think of all the crimes that were committed by people who have skin a little lighter. There are no Whites in truth. This is white (showing his dress). I'm pretty colorful anyway. There are no Blacks either. It's color differences. But, I'm Black in my head. Raël is a Black prophet in his head.

You have Blacks in your countries who are White in their head. These are your Presidents, who dress in costume and tie, copying the colonizers. Who put their money in Switzerland! Who are the servants, what the French formerly called the "house-Negro". That is a very clear expression. There were always slaves who were dominated, who were really crushed, beaten, tortured, killed, raped. And then there was always in the house one or two Blacks who had been "civilized." That is to say, they had been taught to speak, to behave as expected, to dress as expected, that is to say, like the Europeans, and they were at the service.

You have to rebel.

And to revolt, you have to propose new ideas...

They were so ingrained with the culture of their masters that they defended them. That means, if the slaves, the real slaves, those who worked in the fields like animals, revolted, they helped the masters to whip or kill the other Blacks with rifles. This was called the house Negro, that is to say, a Negro who is at the service of the one who enslaved him and who ends up loving the master. When slavery was abolished in the United States, finally, theoretically abolished, these Blacks fought for slavery to remain. It's absolutely crazy. That is to say, they had fallen in love with the system which enslaved them.

So you have the same thing at home in Africa. Your house-Negroes are the Presidents who are perhaps blacks of skin but they are Whites in the head. They are Whites in the head. The proof, they continue to make you use the CFA currency. They continue to make you pay a colonial tax to France. I am particularly interested in France. That is why I wanted this conference to be held for the French speaking countries in Africa. The English speaking countries in Africa interest me less. First, they are less numerous in Africa. Africa was really the colony of France, in its totality: North Africa, Central Africa, almost to South Africa, it is France. And it must be remembered that English speaking countries do not have a CFA like currency linked to the British Pound. There is no English like CFA currency in English speaking countries. There is no CFA currency in the Arab countries (Northern Africa). It is only Black Africa, the one that interests me, that is now permanently enslaved, financially, culturally.

I insist. One often talks of neo-colonialism. That is a form of colonialism. You are not colonized. You are enslaved. I will explain why.

You work. More than half of your work is for France. Specialists can tell you a lot better than I do with figures. All Africans in French speaking Africa, you work, 50 % of what you produce is for France. If the French were to be taken 50 % of what they do, it would be revolution.

The Africans, they accept guided by house-Negroes presidents, ministers who are dressed exactly as their masters in suit and tie, who continue to propagate the religion of the slave owners. For it must well be understood that the Europeans and the French in particular have used their religion, the Catholic Church, to subjugate and enslave all of Africa. And you're in there. There was a so-called decolonization. Colonization, decolonization and financial slavery. You are slaves!

What is a slave? It's someone who works just to have something to eat, to get dressed, to have a shelter. It's you. Aside from your leaders and a small elite, I know that all Africans, at the end of the month, they just have what's enough to eat, not always. To dress, not always! A shelter, not always either! That's what it is being a slave. It is not having the benefit of his work. Even 10% for France that would be too much!

The colonial tax. Billions. I mean billions, not millions. Billions every year that are paid by the African countries in the form of tax to France. I dream. How can you accept that? How? Where does this money come from? Do not think, saying that it is just a tax that the country pays. It comes from your pocket. It's your money. This is completely crazy. So when the French left, they said: we made roads, we made hospitals, we made schools. You have to pay back. And the puppets, house Negroes they put in power, they have of course [agreed] and they signed. That is the situation in which you are.

More seriously. What makes a country independent? Really independent? It is the right to print its currency. You do not have it. Your currency is printed in France. France gives it to you drop by drop. When you Africans want to go and buy or trade with China, a wonderful country or with the United States, you cannot send your CFA currency, directly exchange it for dollar or for Chinese yumbi. You are obliged to exchange it in France for euros and then you can exchange it. This is madness and you accept that?

So what I say, just like Thomas Jefferson, when there are unjust laws, it is right to revolt.

And I call on French speaking Africans to revolt.

To revolt because every time you had a president who was not a house Negro, who said, "No, I do not agree, I will not pay the colonial tax any more, we will print our own Money", the French had him assassinated. It happened often. You know it. You know their name. It is very simple. It's easy to find on the Internet if you do not remember it. There have been many, I say, a lot of African leaders who have risen and said no, it is not acceptable as I say to you now. And immediately they are assassinated.

One of the last examples, and Ivory Coast is dear to me, you have Laurent Gbagbo who is an extraordinary man who was captured by the French army. They put a puppet in his place. And he is trialed for crime, a crime he never committed. And he is trialed indefinitely, it lasts and it will last. What does France want from this international tribunal? International Tribunal, it's interesting, that was done to bring into trial criminals against humanity. Wait, wait, not all of them. There is an international convention but America, No! If there is a criminal against humanity, America does not recognize, the United States does not recognize this tribunal. Many countries do not recognize it.

But the Americans are the first to say that it must be used to judge African leaders who do not listen to us, who are not, who do not accept being docile slaves. That is what it means, this so called international justice. It is a tribunal of international injustice. And I know, from the sky that poor Gbagbo, they poison him slowly because they do not want that all of a sudden he is acquitted because he has done nothing. There is everything for him to be acquitted and he will want to return to Côte d'Ivoire. They do not want, so they will do anything; His political assassination has already been prepared. It's France that does all that. Why? Because it does not want such leaders. Imagine if Gbagbo comes back, it's going to be delirious in Ivory Coast to welcome him and they will not be able to do anything again or capture him a second time.

So what's going on? How do you do now, for the future, to defend yourself? Africa, country dear to the heart of the ELOHIM of whom I am the Messenger, what to do?

Well, you must rebel. And to revolt it is necessary to propose new ideas. It is necessary to propose a system that prevents house-Negroes, once again, people at the service of slavery masters, to be in power. And get the movement be so strong that no one dares to intervene.

So it's called reciprocity. The reciprocity for the French military bases, the French military presence in French-speaking Africa, would mean that Ivorian or Gabonese soldiers or all the colonies would also go to France to protect, of course, not to intervene, to protect the African community living in France, and which is much more important in number than the French living in Africa. There are a handful of French people living in Africa but there is an army to protect them. There are tens of thousands of Africans living in France, but there is no army to protect them. Ah! But the French police takes care of it. So why is the African police unable to protect? That means that they are treated with contempt. There is no equivalence. There is no reciprocity.

What does it mean? It's an occupation. And we saw it very well in all the incidents that occurred, in all the attempts to revolt against the French power, what happened? Who captured Gbagbo in Côte d'Ivoire? The French army, present to protect the French. But all of a sudden, no, it was not there to protect the French. It intervened militarily. It began by destroying the independent Ivorian army, the independent Ivorian aviation. Wow! The Ivorians were proud, we have an aviation. Three old Mysteries that could still mysteriously fly. Old and outdated planes and they were immediately destroyed. It's not an army. It's a joke, three planes. And the armies of all the African countries are kept voluntarily in the state of micro-army, supposedly for the national defense. It's a joke. You have no defense.

How do they do to intervene? That's interesting. In almost all the French speaking countries in Africa there are French soldiers. But, wait, Independent! What is independence? It is all the sudden a country where there is no longer a foreign army. When the United States became independent from England, not one British soldier remained. That is independence. When Algeria became independent from France, there was not a French soldier who remained. But why in all the French speaking countries in Africa there are French military bases?

Well, they say it is to protect our nationals in case of a political instability. Beautiful story, very beautiful story! Now, the political instability that could endanger the lives of French citizens living in Africa! In France there are lots of political instability and terrible racism, which means that there are lots of African victims who are killed by racists or are mistreated by racists.

Normally, there is an international rule that is reciprocity. That is to say, recently the United States, a few years ago, imposed enormous difficulties on foreigners. Even Europeans who could go to the United States without a visa, all of a sudden, you need a visa. So even Europeans must now obtain a visa to enter

The model exists to change all that. What is the model?

A peaceful country, a wonderful country, a truly democratic country: Switzerland. Switzerland, in the heart of Europe, has a very small army. But every Swiss is immediately a military if necessary. How? All the Swiss have guns at home. It's a militia. This is called a militia. All Swiss do a little military service of two weeks or three weeks a year, that's all. But they have their weapons at home and they are permanently ready to be mobilized to protect the country if attacked.

They have a real democracy too, because there are no deputies, there are no such things. As soon as the people want to vote on something, they ask what the Swiss call a votation. And whether or not it pleases the leaders, there must be a vote, the vote of the people. And if the people decide for anything, even if the rulers, the wise, the so-called sages in Switzerland, are against it, they are obliged to accept it. This is a true democracy.

It is the people, you who decide for it, and not the house-Negroes. For you, the only way you have to free yourself, not from this neo-colonialism, which is again slavery.

Imagine, you may be working eight or ten (10) hours a day, you work four (4) or five (5) hours a day for France. Will you accept that for a long time? If you accept then you are all house-Negroes. Is that what you want? I hope not. And that's why I'm more Black than your leaders. It is not the color of the skin that counts. It is your life, your interest, your happiness, your well-being and your future.

Why should you create a popular army, a popular militia throughout Africa that goes hand in hand with the united kingdoms of Africa that I have been promoting for a long time now?

The borders of your countries are artificial, they were decided by the Europeans who met one day and who drew the map and said: we will share a beautiful cake, Africa. This is for you the English, this is for us French. Then the French took a piece on borders drawn on a map ignoring existing kingdoms, ethnicities, and existing languages. It's a complete madness. And with independence, one could have hoped (but they did not want, the French), one would have hoped that it would be a return to what existed before colonization that is to say return to kingdoms. No, they have drawn the borders. Now the house-Negroes said: We keep them. We're going to make a minister, a president. We are going to elect deputies. We're going to copy; we're going to copycat the Whites. We're going to do everything like them.

And that gives the massacres: ethnic groups everywhere fighting because another ethnic group is in the presidency, has power and mistreats the other ethnic minorities. It gives what you live; you know that was terrible between the Tutsis and the Hutus in a country. Finally, it is massacres everywhere because you live in borders that are not yours. It was not you who decided these borders. They are not historical. They are not even geographical. They are not based on anything. They were decided by the White Catastrophe you experienced. Worse than the rest of the world. For there is not a single country in the world where one has suffered as much as Africa. There were no slaves taken from South America and sent elsewhere. Perhaps because they had a lighter skin. It may be possible. There were no slaves taken from China, from Asia, from India and sent elsewhere; no, it never happened. In Africa, yes, ah you were black that is logical, they had a black skin that is it; this is your life.

And they are ready to start it again; They are ready to start all over at any time. There are already projects from the United States, to make a base. Then they will come with their armies to bring you democracy, to bring you democracy human rights, with bombs. Of course, you saw it, you lived it, we all lived it in Libya, Afghanistan, Iraq, weapons of mass destruction. Syria now where it is a must to protect the populations from the dictator Assad. It is a joke, it is totally false, he is adored by his people. But, of course, one wants oil, one wants to support Israel and one does what one did with Gaddafi who was murdered ...

The great, the extraordinary Gaddafi who loved Africa like me. He was not Black but he loved Black Africa. He wanted to create an African currency, and that's why he was murdered, because he wanted to create the United States of Africa, to create an African currency and all of a sudden with the enormous fortune that he had amassed by the oil resources of his country, put it at the service of Africa. Extraordinary! It was quick, the criminal Sarkozy immediately pushed the attack and kill Gaddafi. We know the end, the results are known. Same thing with Saddam Hussein. It's the same everywhere.

They are ready to begin. They are ready to colonise you again if you have the least temptation to escape their control. If you have the least temptation necessary not to use the CFA franc, of creating an African army, they will not hesitate to invade you once more, under the pretext of protecting you from a dictator, of bringing democracy like they had the pretext of bringing Christianity. It's always false pretexts.

What interests them? Wealth, your wealth; I say it again, Africa is the wealthiest continent on Earth. You are sitting on solid gold. The resources of your countries are infinite. There are no similar resources on any other continent in the world. So, you have to think about that, you have to acquire your real independence. And that independence, sadly begins with an armed resistance.

I am, I have always been non-violent; I still am for the absolute non-violence, these are our values. Sadly, the absolute non-violence, the greatest apostle of which was Gandhi, who is the being that I admire the most in the history of humanity. Gandhi who chased the English away with non-violence. That is the ideal. Why? How could that happen? Why is that there is no possibility that an African Gandhi could come out? Because it's impossible, for the good and simple reason that, on this planet, there is no more compassion.

What made Gandhi, by fasting, militating, by protesting in a non-violent manner, bringing millions of Indians with him, the real Indians from India, not false Indians of America, real Indians to do sit-in, to sit and refuse to obey the English? What caused the English to leave? It's not their bare hands. All of that has been reported in the media, the real English media at the time, the English public opinion was scandalized and the English had to leave. The same thing happened during the Vietnam War. The Americans were in the process of massacring the Yellows, of course they are Yellows, it's not bad, and the American media informed the populations. Enormous protests for peace, and the American lost the war, not militarily, but because they were constrained to return home, because the Americans were revolting, they did not want to be associated to this crime being committed on their behalf in Vietnam.

All that does not exist anymore. Now, if there is an African Gandhi who stands and gathers ten thousand (10.000), hundred thousand (100.000) Africans on the street to protest in a non-violent manner, they will send a bomb to destroy everyone. They will catch the African Gandhi and they will put him in Guantanamo.

There is no more compassion. If there is no more compassion, there can be no Gandhi, there can be no “Yankee go home” like in the time of Vietnam. Because nobody cares. White people do not care. As long as they have their television, their futile entertainment programs, their singing contest, lotto, horse races or football competitions, they are not interested. From time to time, they are moved for a dog that fell at the bottom of a well, for a lion in Africa that was killed by a dentist, then all of a sudden wow! But the millions of Iraqis, Libyans, Syrians...Gaza, a huge concentration camp where children are dying, where there is no water, nobody moves...

But for a dog that fell in a well, then it's a scandal. All the American media, it's a must to save that dog. For a popular lion that was killed by a dentist in an organized safari where he paid his place in Kenya, all the American media, the American population is scandalized. How can one kill a lion? I'm sorry; I do not care about that lion. What interest me are the children of Gaza, because they are human beings. There is compassion for a dog or a lion but not for Iraqi, Libyan or Gaza children. But what is this planet? Is Satan right all of a sudden? Are we crazy, completely? It is to die of laughing to avoid crying.

So there is no more compassion, thus a Gandhi can no longer be. Non-violence can only win in a world remained civilized. Yet, White people are no longer civilized. They are barbarians, and we see it on the entire planet. The Asians wrote it very well, the White catastrophe, the barbary that had soften a little bit at the time of real free media with Gandhi, with the peace in Vietnam. And the Americans and all the powers have taken control of that compassion by doing what the Americans call “embedded journalists”, meaning they put selected journalists, who are there to serve the State. Journalists, if they don't write what the Government told them, eh they are sent back to America and they lose the right to write anymore.

So the media are not doing their work of informing, there is no more one like a Zola to say “I accuse”. No one, they would lose their job the next day. At the time of Zola and the Dreyfus affair, there was an Emile Zola who stands up and says “I accuse”, on the first page of major French newspaper. Not at all anymore, it's absolutely impossible because the journalists are themselves slaves of financial powers that control the world.

They are not numerous those financial powers; it's about sixty (60) families, who possess half of the assets on the Earth that direct the governments. The governments are puppets, it's not democracy. Everything is paid, everything is organized, and people think that it is democracy.

Go on, forget it; watch your television program, watch your football game, we are taking care of you. And while you, Africans still have your eyes left to cry I might say, you are left with something to eat, some clothes to wear; and they also try to sell sports, also try to sell music, and yes, those Africans like to dance, let us give them some music, so they will not think too much about the house-Negroes who govern them. Pay attention to your television programs, what is given to you is not free, it's organized. Fortunately, there are still some independent televisions like those broadcasting this conference; I know that there are African televisions which are broadcasting it. It's precious, this independence of the media.

So I insist on this fact. You will tell me, why is he talking about all that? Because the Elohim love you. They love you free. They love you and they are scandalized by slavery, they are scandalized by the white barbarism.

Behold! It is not to fall into racism. There are Whites of skin, there is one here (pointing at himself) who love you; there are at your home, French who live and love Africa. They are ready to take Ivorian, Gabonese and Burkina Faso citizenship saying " I love this country and I want to be part of it". Those, you must love and protect them, because the same way the French should welcome and love the Blacks who choose to be French, because it is beautiful to choose. It's not the skin color that counts; what counts is the slavery mentality, to enslave the country of one's ancestors to another country. That's what is bad. So it's not racism. The white barbarism, it's the barbarism of a dominant system, sadly populated by a majority of Whites, who massacred and enslaved the world.

Then, you have allies, you are not alone. What are the solutions for the Elohim to regain their smile when they think of you, because they are crying when they look at you. The Elohim love you. Remember, Adam and Eva whose creation we will celebrate in a few hours, were Black. It was not a coincidence, because they wanted to create a very beautiful race, with a very beautiful skin color. Personally I find, I would prefer to be black rather than white, it's more beautiful. There is no accounting for tastes and colors, I think that I look like a little pink pig, but it's not very important, but if I could choose, I would like to be Black, it's my choice, it's my freedom... I would like, maybe, to be Green a bit also, but well that's because I would like to look a little like the ELOHIM who are not White, not Black; colors are magnificent.

So, what are the solutions? You are not alone. It is therefore imperative that you organize votes in which local and national representatives will be elected to support:

1) The United States of Africa, The United Kingdom of Africa, because your customary chiefs, those who are called traditional chiefs, one doesn't call the French president, traditional chief, it is a lack of respect, your kings, why the African kings, one says ah he is an African king, with an extraordinary contempt.

When one talks about the Queen of England, oh lala, the Queen of England, the king of Belgium, it's beautiful! But that is racism. Let an African king has an extraordinary palace, and the Europeans will say it's outrageous, how come? It is outrageous to utilise his fortune to own... The Queen of England uses her fortune while there are English who sleep in the street and don't have anything to eat, in extraordinary palaces. Nobody criticizes. How is it possible? It's double standard.

So, elect people who are for The United Kingdom of Africa. Support your kings, you have kings: traditional chiefs, it's not true. Your village chiefs, they always have a king. Support your kings; Make sure that this very important traditional power be responsible for this African dynamic that will unite all your countries, which will then create an independent currency. At first, it could be a currency for each country, but then, very fast, you have to make a currency of The United Kingdom of Africa, that should probably be called the Afro, a unique currency. No more borders between your countries you are the same people, but of independent kingdoms which have independents power, with an independent king, of ethnic groups you have. You have, I don't know how much, 40 languages in Ivory Coast. These 40 languages, it's you. You like to speak your languages, I don't remember the names of all these languages, they are magnificent; they are your languages. So there is French which has been brought to you.

You must therefore unite.

2) Then, it is necessary to abandon French language and go back to your languages; let your schools teach you your languages, which have a history, a tradition that are magnificent. You had in the past, writers in your languages. Why speak the languages of those who enslaved you and continue to enslave and exploit you?

It is therefore necessary to have an international language; yes, it exists, it's English. So let all the schools learn English, let all peoples of Kama, Africa, (Kama is the original name) speak English and their ancestors' language, both languages, but not French anymore.

Why not French anymore? Because as long as you speak French, you stay... it's a state of cultural enslavement to speak French, just as it's a mode of enslavement to remain Christian or Catholic. Your ancestors, who are for some, on the Elohim's planet, are watching you. And when they see you and you are Christian while they have been converted to Christianity with a gun pointed at their head, imprisoned, beaten, tortured, to accept to become Christian, they can't help but cry, they disavow you, your ancestors when they see you like that. Like Uriel wrote in his book, "A black Christian is a traitor to the memory of his ancestors".

3) Apostatize from Christian religions, go back to your own religions that the Whites in their contempt, called animists, for it is so contemptuous because they were marvelous religions: to respect nature, no pollution, to respect the environment, no deforestation. Cultivate what you need to eat, instead of cultivating cocoa sold to the Swiss and buying milk powder. These things are aberrant and inadmissible.

That's what I wanted to tell you today.

And also, you have allies. Those allies are: China and India. Why China and India?

Because they also have been colonized. The Chinese, it is better to have the Chinese who come to you rather than the Frenchs.

Long live Africa!

Long live your true independence!

Do not pay the colonial tax anymore!

Have your own currency!

Use your own language, your own religions!

And the Elohim will regain their smile.

CLITORAID REPAIRS AND DISTURBS

Burkina Faso, The Pleasure Hospital...

It has been more than three years now that a Burkina Doctor, afraid of losing his business, used his political ties to prevent the functioning of the Pleasure Hospital, 2 days before its opening. He even managed to have Dr Bowers and Dr Henning, our two American doctors, forbidden to practice their art while they came specifically to operate on women and train doctors. As of today, no official reasons have been given for this refusal. All of our legal and administrative recourses are answered by a deafening silence.

At some point, they will have to listen to us though!!

Last January, in Roma, during an international conference on FGM, Antonietta, the Clitoraid representative in Italy, asked the numerous international authorities, some of which from Kama, why the Pleasure Hospital is still closed while thousands of women are impatiently waiting to benefit from this operation as they have no hope to be able to pay for it one day.

Clitoraid is the only solution to end their suffering. A representative of Burkina answered Antonietta saying that the Government of Burkina has offered training to doctors and Clitoraid is not needed there and more importantly, they doesn't need the Raelian Movement and its Pleasure Hospital. She then went on with passion declaring that Clitoraid will never open its doors as the term 'pleasure' is an offense to the women of Burkina. In some twisted way, she even linked the pleasure hospital to prostitution!

The Pleasure Hospital is thus still not playing its role as a reparation center for the women who suffered this barbarian mutilation, but it is becoming a symbol of the fight against the true intellectual mutilation orchestrated by the Christian authorities who repeat to their followers, from the youngest age, that pleasure is sin.

To celebrate the month of the Clitoris, the local team of Clitoraid / AVFE organized a press conference to express its unwavering determination to help women. The local media relayed the information as they too question why a fully equipped hospital is kept closed while local hospitals are under equipped and suffering from frequent black out and don't have generators. About 30 women attended a presentation the following week and 6 of them were operated on by Dr Dah, a local friend doctor who was trained by Dr Bowers.

Clitoraid is now offering regular information meetings in the Pleasure Hospital, pre and post operation counseling and sponsor the operations of the women at Dr Dah's clinic.

The change brought by Clitoraid is not just physical, we have known that from the start and it becomes more and more obvious when considering the surreal obstacles that we face. Our mission is an integral part of the mission of the Raelian Movement: awakening to pleasure, awakening thanks to pleasure, awakening with pleasure...

Someone talking about pleasure?? :-)... bb

Interdiction d'ouverture de Kamkaso

Ces quatre lignes qui ont «gâché la fête du clitoris»

L'Association voie féminine de l'épanouissement (AVFE) ne s'est plus où mettre de la tête depuis l'annulation subite de l'autorisation d'ouverture de son centre médical Kamkaso. Elle a pris la presse à témoin le mardi 23 mai 2017 à Bobo-Dioulasso.

«L'autorisation d'ouverture du centre médical Kamkaso a été annulée en 2014, précisément la veille de sa cérémonie officielle au grand dam des partenaires de l'ONG Clitoraid venus des USA », s'est indignée Mariam Traoré, secrétaire en charge des projets de l'AVFE. Et depuis lors, elle n'arrive toujours pas à voir le bout du tunnel.

«Les hypothèses»

Assise au milieu de deux membres devant une banderole rouge parsemée d'affichettes portant des témoignages qui relatent « tous les bienfaits de la restauration du clitoris », Mariam Traoré se rappelle comme hier « des quatre lignes qui ont troublé la fête du clitoris ». Pour elle, l'interdiction n'a pas d'explication. Toutefois pense-t-elle : « Les hypothèses basées sur la discrimination religieuse ». Et ce en violation des principes fondamentaux des droits de l'homme. D'où la victoire du mouvement Racilien sur un médecin gynécologue du Burkina. Expressément nommé, ce dernier, selon l'AVFE, est l'auteur des quatre lignes trouble-fête qui ont anéanti leur rêve de prendre en charge gratuitement la restauration clitoridienne des victimes de l'excision. « Il a été sommé de verser la somme de 1 million de Francs CFA au mouvement racilien par le parquet de Ouagadougou », confie l'association.

«Un ministre sérieux»

Depuis lors, l'AVFE selon Mariam Traoré attend avec beaucoup d'espoir l'arrivée d' « un ministre sérieux » pour la mise à jour de leur autorisation d'ouvrir le centre médical Kamkaso déjà équipé. En attendant, les femmes désirant réparer leur clitoris sont invitées à une journée d'information le samedi 27 mai 2017 à Kamkaso. Si l'autorisation tarde à venir, l'AVFE ne baissera pas pour autant les bras. Son joyau servira de refuge pour les femmes victimes des inégalités liées à leur sexe ■

Un journaliste prié de quitter la salle

Avant le début de la conférence de l'Association voie féminine de l'épanouissement, Mariam Traoré a voulu chasser de la salle le journaliste représentant de la Radio Liberté de parler et de communiquer au motif qu'il ne rend pas compte fidèlement de leurs activités. Le journaliste n'a pas obtempéré. Les confrères présents l'ont soutenu. Heureusement, l'incident s'est arrêté là. Encore une atteinte à la liberté de presse ■

Aminata SANOU

A few words by Banemanie, responsible for AVFE:

While the press conference was received with compassion by the media in a serene atmosphere, the information meeting the following week was rich in emotions. It started with this young couple who came very early and waiting at the doors of the hospital to make sure that the woman would be the first to be on the list.

The day was a great success according to the feedback of the more than 30 women coming from the city of BoBo Dioulasso and from a nearby village. For 2 hours and a half, they followed with passion all the informations given, the videos, the explanations from the Clitoraid's representative, from a doctor and from a representative of the Regional Direction of Social Action.

The goal of Clitoraid was not only to launch the monthly campaigns of clitoris restoration but it was also to reinforce the need to prevent clitoris mutilations as, despite national laws that forbid them, it is still a local clandestine practice, especially during the school holidays, when the little girls go back to the villages on vacations.

It worked and induced multiple testimonies and commitments full of emotion from the participants. One of them carrying a baby said " I have little girls and I was planning on having them excised. Now that I have seen these videos, I will not do it."

A teacher said "I am a teacher and as soon as I return in the school, I will inform the pupils and the parents against FGM!"

Clitoraid's Mission in Kenya

I cannot begin to tell you how much of a success our Clitoraid mission has been! The media interest has been extraordinary around the world (over 230 media outlets posted the news), but to sum it all up, here is a letter we received this morning from one of our 45 patients who had their surgery over the past 2 weeks in Nairobi, Kenya. 11 doctors were also trained to keep the mission going in Kenya. We now have contacts in Tanzania to lead a similar mission in her country. Thank you Beloved Maitreya for Your Love, for Your revolutionary vision that makes humanity more humane and more worthy of its creators 🌸🌍🌸

Nadine Gary (The amazing operation coordinator of Clitoraid... Thank you Nadine!)

*I would like to thank you all for your hard work.
It has only been 4 days since the day of my surgery but I already feel good about myself.
I am so happy with the results of the surgery.*

*Dr Bowers was such a darling, not only was she a doctor but also a loving human being with a big heart. I can still feel her warm hug and her inspiring words.
Ooh I love her so much!
The nurses and other doctors were all awesome, I have never felt comfortable in a hospital like I did.*

*Thank you for emailing me to let me know about the mission in Kenya , thanks for all the pieces of information you always kept updating me about. It was a great experience. I arrived in Nairobi early mornings and I was at the Karen hospital by 8 o'clock . I was surprised to see how crowded it was , I saw a 7/8 year old girl and immediately I couldn't help but cry, no child deserves to undergo such an abuse ever. I left her in the que so I don't know if she got the chance to be operated on, well I hope she did. () see link below to know about the little girl)
I managed to chat with other patients, each an everyone's story was different but I learnt quite a lot .
We have a whatsapp group and it looks like everyone is recovering well. They were so excited to have been made whole again.
I am still recovering in Nairobi for one more week and then I'll go back to my region not the same way as I came .*

I love you all at clitoraid, thank you once again.
